MUENSTER - A substantial number of scholarships and awards were presented Nov 15 at the annual St. Peter's College awards ceremony held at St. Peter's College.

Guest speaker for the event was Glen Kobussen, special advisor to the St. Peter's College board of governors, management consultant and Edwards School of Business professor. Kobussen spoke on the topic "Leadership in the 21st Century and Beyond."

This year, $36,000 in scholarships and awards were presented to St. Peter's College students for their leadership, positive role modeling and academic achievements.

Students receiving external awards from the University of Saskatchewan and the CBC's Youth Write for Radio Competition (winners were Danielle Rose and Hayley Down) also were recognized at the event, bringing the total value of awards received by St. Peter's College students to more than $77,000.

"Our scholarships and awards ceremony would not be possible without the generosity of many people and organizations," said Rob Harasymchuk, president of St. Peter's College.

"Thank you to all of the businesses, organizations and individuals who have given to St. Peter's College Scholarships and Awards," said Harasymchuk. "These investments in education help to encourage our students and recognize them for their leadership, volunteer and academic achievements," he added. "Congratulations to all of our students who have received awards today."

Two students, Christy Waldner of Muenster and Jolissa Simon of Yellow Creek were presented with the St. Peter's College Writing Diploma.

The Abbot Peter Novecosky Jubilee Award was presented to Megan Britz; the Abbot Severin Gertken Scholarship went to Jacqueline Block.
